A WORD AS TO THESE CATTLE

This lot of Shorthorns, drawn from two of the leading breeding establishments of this country, Thaxton Farm, James Brown, Dundee, Ill., and Heart's Delight Farm, W. H. Miner, Chazy, N. Y., are a particularly desirable lot from the standpoint of individual excellence or of strong and fashionable lines of breeding. It is a question whether a more valuable lot will be offered this season. They are by sires that have made good, and from dams equally desirable. There are in the list high-class matrons, imported and home bred, an array of heifers of special merit, and bulls for high-class service.

Those desiring material that is right are invited to inspect this lot of richly bred Shorthorns. They are certain to please.

This is by far the best heifer in the sale, and the very BEST heifer we ever bred. She is by Right Stamp, and this heifer is a full sister to the young white bull we are keeping for sire. She is a wonderful show prospect, and made so neat she cannot go wrong. She is a far better heifer than the Augusta heifer that sold for $4,025 in June, 1918.
